This Third Amended Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement”), including its attached Exhibits, is entered into as of this ____ day of June, 2016, by and among Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and on behalf of the Settlement Class Members, and Defendants Remington Arms Company, LLC, E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, and Sporting Goods Properties, Inc., to settle and compromise the Action and to discharge the Released Parties as set forth herein.

I. RECITALS

WHEREAS, until November 30, 1993, the Delaware company known as Remington Arms Company, Inc. was a wholly-owned subsidiary of E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Company (“Du Pont”) and was engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing, and selling firearms and ammunition products;

WHEREAS, on December 1, 1993, Du Pont sold substantially all of the assets of Remington Arms Company, Inc. to Remington Acquisition Corporation, Inc. (“RACI”);

WHEREAS, Remington Arms Company, Inc. then changed its name to Sporting Goods Properties, Inc. (“SGPI”), and SGPI remains a wholly-owned Du Pont subsidiary;

WHEREAS, RACI is now known as Remington Arms Company, LLC (“Remington”);

WHEREAS, from 1948 through November 30, 1993, SGPI manufactured certain models of firearms which incorporated trigger mechanisms utilizing a component known as a trigger connector, including the Model 700 bolt-action rifle containing the Walker trigger mechanism;<sup>1</sup>

WHEREAS, after December 1, 1993, Remington manufactured certain models of firearms which incorporated trigger mechanisms utilizing a component known as a trigger connector, including the Model 700 bolt-action rifle containing the Walker trigger mechanism;

WHEREAS, beginning in May 2006, Remington began to manufacture certain firearms with trigger mechanisms that did not utilize a trigger connector component;

WHEREAS, such trigger mechanisms on Model 700 and Model Seven rifles are known as X-Mark Pro® trigger mechanisms;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs’ Counsel filed four putative class actions against Defendants in federal district courts in 2012 and 2013 arising out of the marketing and sale of Model 700 bolt-action rifles containing the Walker trigger mechanism (Chapman v. Remington Arms Co., LLC et al., No. 1:12-cv-24561 (S.D. Fla. Dec. 31, 2012); Pollard v. Remington Arms Co., LLC et al., No. 4:13-cv-00086 (W.D. Mo. Jan. 28, 2013); Moodie v. Remington Arms Co., LLC et al., No. 2:13-cv-00172 (W.D. Wash. Jan. 29, 2013); Huleatt v. Remington Arms Co., LLC et al., No. 9:13-cv-00113 (D. Mont. June 4, 2013)) (hereinafter “the putative class actions”);

WHEREAS, unrelated counsel filed a fifth putative class action against Defendants in federal district court in December 2013 arising out of the marketing and sale of Model 700 bolt-action rifles containing the Walker trigger mechanism (Hembree v. Remington Arms Co., LLC et al., No. 3:13-cv-05161 (W.D. Mo. Dec. 17, 2013)), which was later dismissed pursuant to Rule 41 on December 30, 2013. The Hembree action was a nearly identical lawsuit that made identical claims to the putative class actions;

WHEREAS, the plaintiffs in the putative class actions alleged that the Walker trigger mechanism is defectively designed because it utilizes a trigger connector which can result in accidental discharges without the trigger being pulled, and that the value and utility of such Model 700 bolt-action rifles have been diminished as a result of the alleged defective design;

WHEREAS, the plaintiffs in the putative class actions sought damages and equitable relief, on behalf of themselves and other class members, premised on alleged economic losses, and did not seek damages or other relief for personal injury or property damage claims;

WHEREAS, the plaintiffs in Chapman, Pollard, Moodie, and Huleatt alleged that Remington's X-Mark Pro trigger mechanism was a safe alternative to the Walker trigger mechanism;

WHEREAS, Defendants filed motions to dismiss in Chapman, Pollard, Moodie, and Huleatt, resulting in the dismissal of some but not all claims in Pollard and Moodie on June 17 and August 2, 2013, respectively;

WHEREAS, the Parties served written discovery requests in Chapman, Pollard, and Moodie;

WHEREAS, Chapman was voluntarily dismissed on August 21, 2013, Huleatt was voluntarily dismissed on October 1, 2013, and, as set forth above, Hembree was voluntarily dismissed on December 30, 2013, resulting in the maintenance of Pollard and Moodie only;

WHEREAS, the Parties served responses and objections to written discovery requests in Pollard and Moodie;

WHEREAS, certain of Plaintiffs' Counsel had previously conducted extensive discovery regarding Model 700 bolt-action rifles and the Walker trigger mechanism from prior and pending litigation against Defendants, Defendants as part of that prior discovery produced hundreds of thousands of documents dealing with the core issues in the present litigation, i.e., the design of the Walker trigger mechanism and the accidental discharging of rifles without a trigger pull, and the Parties in this litigation agreed that Defendants would not be required to reproduce documents that were already within Plaintiffs' Counsel's possession;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs' Counsel reviewed over 1,000,000 pages of documents as part of their investigation and analysis into the facts of this litigation;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs' Counsel conducted extensive investigations into the facts and circumstances related to this litigation, including consulting with experts, interviewing potential witnesses, conducting inspections of firearms, and researching and studying legal principles applicable to the issues of liability, damages, jurisdiction and procedure;

WHEREAS, while discovery was being conducted, settlement discussions commenced in the summer of 2013;

WHEREAS, in approximately September 2013, the settlement discussions progressed to the point where the Parties decided that the next step would be to participate in non-binding mediation. As a result, the Parties informed the Pollard and Moodie courts of their intention to attempt to mediate the cases, and were granted requests to maintain the current status of the cases pending mediation;

WHEREAS, the Parties, through their counsel, attended and participated in five in-person mediation sessions conducted by John W. Perry (“the Mediator”), who is an experienced, independent mediator, and further engaged in additional extensive communications with the Mediator and each other;

WHEREAS, prior to and during the mediation sessions, the Parties exchanged information and documents which allowed each side to further evaluate their claims and defenses;

WHEREAS, while mediation was ongoing, the Parties agreed that Remington’s X-Mark Pro trigger mechanism could be an appropriate retrofit for Remington Model 700, Seven, Sportsman 78, and 673 firearms containing a Walker trigger mechanism, subject to confirmatory discovery and confirmation by Plaintiffs’ experts;

WHEREAS, also while mediation was ongoing, the Parties agreed that the current Model 770 Connectorless Trigger Mechanism could be an appropriate retrofit for Remington Model 710, 715, and 770 firearms containing a trigger mechanism that utilizes a trigger connector, subject to confirmatory discovery and confirmation by Plaintiffs’ experts;

WHEREAS, after the agreement that the X-Mark Pro trigger mechanism was an appropriate retrofit, Remington learned that the then-existing X-Mark Pro assembly process created the potential for the application of an excess amount of bonding agent, which could cause Model 700 and Model Seven bolt-action rifles containing X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms to discharge without a trigger pull under certain limited conditions;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs’ Counsel were informed by Remington, and through their own independent investigations, of certain limited conditions which could potentially cause Model 700 and Model Seven bolt-action rifles containing X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms to discharge without a trigger pull;

WHEREAS, the Parties are unaware of any personal injury caused by or as a consequence of an X-Mark Pro assembled with excess bonding agent;

WHEREAS, on or about April 11, 2014, and after consultation and coordination with Plaintiffs’ Counsel, Remington undertook a voluntary recall of all Model 700 and Model Seven bolt-action rifles containing X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms manufactured from May 1, 2006 to April 9, 2014;

WHEREAS, under the terms of the voluntary recall, Remington instituted a specialty cleaning, inspection, and testing process to remove any excess bonding agent that may have been applied in affected X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms;

WHEREAS, Remington also changed and improved its assembly processes with regard to the X-Mark Pro trigger mechanism, so the excess bonding agent issue cannot occur again;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs' and Defendants' experts agree that triggers that have been specialty cleaned, inspected, and tested are equivalent in terms of safety and performance as triggers manufactured under the changed and improved assembly process;

WHEREAS, once Remington was able to manufacture substantial numbers of X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms to be used as replacement triggers in affected rifles, it provided recall participants the option to receive a replacement trigger or have their trigger specialty cleaned;

WHEREAS, current participants in the voluntary recall are provided with new triggers manufactured under the changed and improved assembly process rather than the specialty clean, inspection, and testing;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs' Counsel filed motions for leave to amend the complaints in Pollard and Moodie to include additional class action allegations arising out of the X-Mark Pro recall;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs' experts, along with their Counsel, have conducted an inspection of Remington's changed and improved assembly process, examined X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms manufactured and assembled under the revised process, and confirmed that X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms manufactured under the revised assembly process are safe and reliable mechanisms suitable for retrofit in Remington Model 700, Seven, Sportsman 78, and 673 firearms containing a Walker trigger mechanism;

WHEREAS, the Parties continued to mediate the cases, and following the fifth in-person mediation session, the Parties reached the material terms of this Settlement Agreement in July 2014;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs intend to file a proposed amended complaint in Pollard in conjunction with this Settlement Agreement that seeks certification of two nationwide settlement classes (broken into various sub-classes) to encompass economic-loss claims involving: (1) all Model 700, 721, 722, 725, Seven, Sportsman 78, 600, 660, 673, XP-100, 710, 715, and 770 firearms manufactured by Remington or SGPI that contain trigger mechanisms that utilize a trigger connector; and (2) Model 700 and Seven bolt-action rifles containing X-Mark Pro trigger mechanisms that are subject to the April 2014 voluntary recall;

WHEREAS, in July 2014, the Parties notified this Court and the Moodie court of their desire to resolve both cases through the certification of the aforementioned nationwide settlement classes;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs believe that the claims asserted in the Action have substantial merit; however, taking into account the extensive burdens and expense of litigation, including the risks and uncertainties associated with protracted trials and appeals, as well as the fair, cost-effective and assured method of resolving the claims of the Settlement Classes, Plaintiffs and their Counsel have concluded that the Settlement Agreement provides substantial benefits to the Settlement Classes, and is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of Plaintiffs and the Settlement Classes;

WHEREAS, Defendants deny that the design of the Walker trigger mechanism or other trigger mechanisms utilizing a trigger connector are defective and can result in accidental discharges without the trigger being pulled, as well as deny Plaintiffs' remaining allegations, wrongdoing of any kind, and believe that the Action is without merit, Defendants have also taken into account the uncertainty, risk, delay, and costs inherent in litigation and agreed to enter into the Settlement Agreement to avoid any further litigation expenses and inconvenience, to remove the distraction of burdensome and protracted litigation, and to provide customers with the benefits outlined below rather than spending this money on costly litigation;

WHEREAS, Defendants have agreed to class treatment of the claims asserted in the Action solely for the purpose of effectuating the compromise and Settlement of those claims on class bases, as set forth herein, and deny that the Action properly could proceed on class bases for purposes of litigation or for trial;

WHEREAS, it is the intention and desire of the Parties to compromise, resolve, dismiss and release all allegations, disputes, and claims for damages or equitable relief arising out of, or relating to, the sale, marketing, design, and/or use of the trigger mechanisms in all of the firearms that are the subject of this Settlement on the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement that have been or could have been brought by Plaintiffs themselves and on behalf of Settlement Class Members against Defendants;

WHEREAS, the Parties agree that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is an appropriate nationwide resolution accomplished through the benefits, releases, and orders set forth in or attached to this Settlement Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire not only to end further burdensome and protracted litigation but also to create the claims process that is set forth herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, without an admission or concession on the part of Plaintiffs on the lack of merit of the Action or an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing or the lack of merit of any defense by Defendants, it is stipulated and agreed by Defendants and Plaintiffs, acting for themselves and on behalf of the Settlement Classes, that, on the following terms and conditions, the Action shall be settled and dismissed with prejudice as among Plaintiffs, the Settlement Classes, and Defendants upon Final Approval of the Court after the hearing(s) provided for in the Settlement; and the Settlement Class Members shall release all Released Claims against Defendants and all Released Parties.

Remington, et al.* (W.D. Wash., Coughenour, J.) (the “Moodie” or “Washington Action”). The joint motion to stay will seek to stay the case until the Effective Date of the Settlement as defined in this Settlement Agreement. However, if the Settlement Agreement is not approved and/or does not become effective, the Plaintiffs and Defendants will be restored without prejudice to their respective positions in the Pollard and Moodie actions as if the Settlement Agreement, any application for its approval by the Court, and the filing of the proposed Amended Class Action Complaint in the Pollard Action had not been made, submitted or filed. In particular, the proposed Final Approval Order shall specify that, without in any way affecting the finality of the Final Approval Order, the Court expressly retains exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the Parties, including the Settlement Class, in all matters relating to the administration, consummation, validity, enforcement and interpretation of the Settlement Agreement and the Final Approval Order, including, without limitation, for the purpose of: (a) enforcing the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement and negotiations and resolving any disputes that arise out of the implementation or enforcement of the Settlement Agreement; (b) entering such additional orders, if any, as may be necessary or appropriate to protect or effectuate

If they choose to ship their firearm, Remington will send the Settlement Class Member pre-paid shipping tags, boxes, and written instructions. A current list of Remington Authorized Repair Centers can be found on the Settlement Website or by calling the Settlement Phone Number. Settlement Class Members must first submit a timely Claim Form to be eligible for this benefit.

A voucher code for Remington products in the amount of $12.50 will be provided to Settlement Class Members who own a Model 600, 660, or XP-100, which were manufactured between 1962 and 1982. These voucher codes are transferable, may be combined with other Remington coupons or vouchers, and do not expire. Settlement Class Members are not required to return their firearm(s) to Remington in order to receive a voucher code. Settlement Class Members must, however, first timely submit a Claim Form to be eligible for this benefit.

- (i) Du Pont and SGPI shall bear the ultimate financial cost of providing these voucher benefits.

Settlement Class Members must first submit a timely Claim Form to be eligible for this benefit.

These models are the subject of a voluntary Product Safety Recall (see www.xmprecall.com). Both this Settlement and the Product Safety Recall entitle current owners of these firearms to have their old X-Mark Pro trigger mechanism retrofitted with a new X-Mark Pro trigger mechanism. However, the Product Safety Recall does not provide for any other benefit described herein. Current owners of rifles subject to the Product Safety Recall may still participate in this Settlement. Due to the ongoing Product Safety Recall, the trigger mechanism retrofit for these models is currently available to these Settlement Class Members, and Settlement Class Members do not need to wait until the Effective Date to receive this benefit. (See ¶ 56.)

- (b) Settlement Class B(2) – current and former owners of Model 700 and Seven rifles who replaced their rifle’s original Walker trigger mechanism with an X-Mark Pro trigger mechanism manufactured from May 1, 2006 to April 9, 2014.

55. All Settlement Firearms:

- (a) In addition to the benefits described above in ¶¶ 53-54, all Settlement Class Members who fully execute the Claim Form will be provided with an educational DVD regarding safe firearm handling practices.

This will be done as part of efforts to notify Settlement Class Members of their entitlement to a cash refund pursuant to ¶ 54(b) above. Remington shall provide to the Class Action Settlement Administrator this information within ten (10) days after issuance of the Preliminary Approval Order. The exclusive means for any challenge to this Settlement shall be through the provisions of this Section VI.B. Without limiting the foregoing, any challenge to the Settlement or Final Approval Order shall be pursuant to appeal under the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and not through a collateral attack.
83. Any Settlement Class Member who objects to the Settlement shall be entitled to all of the benefits of the Settlement if this Settlement Agreement and the terms contained herein are approved, as long as the objecting Settlement Class Member complies with all requirements of this Settlement Agreement applicable to Settlement Class Members, including the timely submission of a Claim Form and other requirements herein.

Defendants agree to pay any fees and costs awarded by the Court in an amount not to exceed $12,500,000, and will do so within seven (7) days of the Effective Date. The Motion for Preliminary Approval, Long Form Notice, and Short Form Notice shall state that Class Counsel will seek an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in an amount not to exceed $12,500,000.

87. In addition to the relief outlined above in Section IV, prior to the date set by the Court for objections Class Counsel shall seek the Court's approval of a representative plaintiff award of $2,500 each for Plaintiffs Dylan Anderson, Rodney Barbre, Wallace Brown, John Corsi, Chase Delperdang, Gordon Hardaway, Roger Keesy, William Massie, William Moodie, Gary Otis, Ian Pollard, James Waterman, and Mitchell Winterburn.

The representative plaintiff awards are to compensate Plaintiffs solely for their time and effort associated with their participation in Pollard and Moodie, and shall not be considered reimbursement or compensation for damages or any such other payment or other relief sought in the Action. If the request for representative plaintiff awards is finally approved by the Court and upheld on any appeal, then Remington shall pay the amount ordered by the Court to each representative plaintiff within seven (7) business days after the Effective Date. The representative plaintiff awards do not preclude Plaintiffs from receiving settlement benefits. The Motion for Preliminary Approval, Long Form Notice, and Short Form Notice shall state that Class Counsel will seek representative plaintiff awards of $2,500 per plaintiff.

IX. RELEASE

88. As consideration for the relief provided under the Settlement Agreement, the Releasing Persons agree to release the Released Persons from any and all claims, demands, rights, damages, obligations, suits, debts, liens, contracts, agreements and causes of action of every nature and description whatsoever, ascertained or unascertained, suspected or unsuspected, existing or claimed to exist, including those unknown, both at law and in equity which were or could have been brought against Defendants, or any of them, based upon or related in any way to the trigger mechanisms in the rifle models subject to the Settlement Agreement, including but not limited to those claims asserted in the Action, whether sounding in tort, contract, breach of warranty, violation of any state or federal statute or regulation, fraud, unjust enrichment, money had and received, restitution, equitable relief, punitive or exemplary damages or any other claims whatsoever under federal law or the law of any state. Released claims also include any claim for attorneys' fees, expenses, costs, and catalyst fees under any state's law or under federal law. Released claims do not include claims for personal injury and personal property damage.
89. If any Settlement Class Member brings an action or asserts a claim against one or more Defendants contrary to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, that Defendant shall provide Class Counsel with a copy of the Settlement Class Member's complaint. Class Counsel agrees to contact counsel of record for the Settlement Class Member and advise him or her of the Settlement Agreement.

X. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. For Settlement Purposes Only/No Admissions

90. The Settlement Agreement is for settlement purposes only, and neither the fact of, nor any provision contained in, this Agreement or its Exhibits, nor any action taken hereunder shall constitute, be construed as, or be admissible in evidence as an admission of: (a) the validity of any claim or allegation by Plaintiffs, or of any defense asserted by Defendants in the Action; (b) the propriety of class certification or proceeding in whole or in part on a classwide basis for purposes of litigation and/or trial in this Action or any future action against one or more Defendants or any Released Party; or (3) any wrongdoing, fault, violation of law, or liability if any kind on the part of any Defendant or Released Party.

91. The Settlement Agreement is without prejudice to the rights of any Defendant or any Released Party to oppose class certification in the Action for purposes of litigation and trial should the Settlement not be finally approved or implemented for any reason.
92. In the event that this Agreement does not become effective for any reason, this Agreement shall become null and void and of no further force and effect. In such instance, this Agreement and any negotiations, statements, communications, proceedings, and pleadings relating thereto, and the fact that the Parties agreed to the Agreement, shall be without prejudice to the rights of Plaintiffs or Defendants or any Settlement Class Member, shall not be used for any purpose whatsoever in any subsequent proceeding in this action or in any other action in any court or tribunal, and shall not be construed as an admission or concession by any party of any fact, matter, or allegation. In the event that this Agreement does not become effective, Plaintiffs, Defendants, and the Settlement Class Members shall be restored without prejudice to their respective positions as if the Agreement, any application for its approval by the Court, and the proposed amended complaint in the Pollard action had not been made, submitted, or filed. Defendants further agree that they will not seek to dismiss the Moodie action or the Moodie class representatives on the account the Moodie class representatives were named as class representatives in the Pollard proposed amended complaint filed in conjunction with the approval of this proposed Settlement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Court should refuse to approve any material part of this Agreement or the Exhibits thereto or if, on appeal, an appellate court fails to affirm the judgment entered pursuant to this Agreement, then the Parties may (but are not obligated to) agree in writing to amend this Agreement and proceed with the Settlement as so amended. Neither any award to a representative plaintiff in an amount less than that sought, nor an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursement to Class Counsel in an amount less than that requested by Class Counsel, nor a reversal on appeal of any such award shall be deemed to be a modification of a material part of this Agreement that causes the Agreement to become null and void pursuant to this section.

B. Arms' Length Negotiations

93. The Mediator has agreed to submit a declaration regarding the arms' length nature of the negotiation and overall fairness of the settlement, which shall be submitted with the Parties' Motion for Preliminary Approval.

C. Alternative Dispute Resolution

94. So that the Settling Parties do not have to return to court, if any disputes arise out of finalization of the settlement documentation or out of the Settlement itself, said disputes are to be resolved by the Mediator first by way of mediation, and if mediation is unsuccessful then by way of final binding non-appealable arbitration. If for any reason the Mediator is unavailable or has a conflict, the Settling Parties will agree on a substitute neutral so that this clause may be enforced without returning to Court. If the Settling Parties cannot agree upon a substitute neutral, they will jointly petition either the Mediator or the Court to select a neutral for them to enforce this clause. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enter and enforce any award arising from such arbitration.

95. The Court will retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Agreement, including all terms that are not arbitrable issues and will otherwise retain jurisdiction to compel arbitration in accordance with the above provision, as well as to enforce the terms of any award in arbitration to the extent required by law.
96. Nothing in this provision is intended to prevent the Court from exercising its authority to inquire about the bases for settlement, settlement terms, the implementation of the settlement, or the information provided to the Court in connection with preliminary or final approval of the Settlement.

D. Exclusive Remedy; Dismissal of Actions; Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court

97. Each and every Settlement Class Member who has not requested exclusion pursuant to this Agreement submits to the jurisdiction of the Court and will be bound by the terms of this Settlement (including, without limitation, any and all releases).
98. This Agreement shall be the sole and exclusive remedy for any and all Released Claims, and upon entry of the Final Judgment by the Court, each Settlement Class Member who has not opted out of the Class shall be barred from initiating, asserting, or prosecuting any such Released Claims against Defendants.
99. Upon the entry of the Final Approval Order, this action will be dismissed with prejudice.
100. No later than ten (10) days following the Effective Date, the Parties shall file a joint stipulation of voluntary dismissal with prejudice and without costs under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41 in case number 2:13-cv-00172-JCC, Moodie et al. v. Remington et al. (W.D. Wash., Coughenour, J.).

E. Best Efforts

101. The Parties, Plaintiffs' Counsel, and Defendants' Counsel agree to use their best efforts to obtain Court approval of this Settlement, and agree to support all terms of the Settlement Agreement in documents filed with the Court. They further agree to execute all such additional documents as shall be reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

F. Defendants' Liability

102. The Parties understand and acknowledge that Defendants are not jointly and severally responsible for the benefits provided to Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members under this Agreement, and that Defendants are each limited to the specific obligations assigned to them by the terms of this Agreement. Defendants represent that they have the financial wherewithal to comply with the terms of this Settlement Agreement.
103. Remington Outdoor Company, Inc. guarantees the financial obligations of Remington Arms Company, LLC arising under the terms of this Settlement Agreement.

G. Administrative Costs

104. Except as provided in Sections V (Notice), VII (Representative Plaintiff Awards), and VII (Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses), each of the Plaintiffs and the Defendants shall be solely responsible for his, her, or its own costs and expenses.

H. Taxes

105. Plaintiffs, Settlement Class Members, and Plaintiffs' Counsel shall be responsible for paying any and all federal, state, and local taxes due on any payments made to them pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

I. Public Statements

106. The Parties, Plaintiffs' Counsel, and Defendants' Counsel shall not disparage the terms of this Settlement Agreement.

J. Complete Agreement

107. This Settlement Agreement and its Exhibits represent the complete agreement as to each and every term agreed to by and among Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class(es), and Defendants. The Settlement contemplated by this Agreement is not subject to any condition not expressly provided for herein, and there exist no collateral or oral agreements relating to the subject matter of the Agreement. In entering into this Settlement Agreement, no Party has made or relied on any warranty, promise, inducement or representation not specifically set forth herein. Any agreement purporting to change or modify the terms of this Agreement or the Exhibits hereto must be in writing, signed by Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel.
108. All the Exhibits attached hereto or referred to herein are incorporated as if fully set forth in the body of the Agreement.

K. Headings for Convenience Only

109. The headings in this Settlement Agreement are for the convenience of the reader only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Settlement Agreement.

L. Severability

110. In the event that any provision hereof becomes or is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, unenforceable, or void, this Settlement Agreement shall continue in full force and effect without said provision.

M. No Party Is the Drafter

111. None of the Parties shall be considered to be the primary drafter of this Settlement Agreement or any provision hereof for the purpose of any rule of interpretation or construction that might cause any provision to be construed against the drafter.

N. Binding Effect

112. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding according to its terms upon, and inure to the benefit of Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, Defendants, the Settling Parties, and their respective successors and assigns.

O. Authorization to Enter Settlement Agreement

113. Plaintiffs' Counsel represents that they are fully authorized to conduct settlement negotiations with counsel for Defendants on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class, and to enter into, and to execute, this Settlement Agreement on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class, subject to Court approval pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e).
114. Defendants represent and warrant that: (a) it has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; (b) the execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Defendants; (c) its signatories to the Agreement have full authority to sign on behalf of and to bind Defendants to its terms; and (d) this Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Defendants and constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligations.
115. The undersigned counsel represent that they have been fully authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of their respective clients.

P. Execution in Counterparts

116. This Settlement Agreement may be executed in counterparts, and the execution of counterparts shall have the same effect as if all Parties had signed the same instrument. Facsimile signatures shall be considered as valid signatures as of the date signed, although the original signature dates shall thereafter be appended to the Settlement Agreement. This Settlement Agreement shall not be deemed executed until signed by Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel.

Q. California Civil Code § 1542

117. The Parties have read, understood, and consulted with their attorneys and have been fully advised by them as to the contents and meaning of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of California, which provides that:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

The Releasing Persons shall be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily waived and relinquished all rights and benefits afforded by California Civil Code Section 1542, and by any comparable statutory provision or common law rule that provides, in sum or substance, that a general release does not extend to claims which the party does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by it must have materially affected the settlement. The Parties hereby agree and acknowledge that this waiver is an essential term of this Settlement Agreement without which the consideration given herein by Defendants would not have been given.

R. Cancellation

118. Remington shall be entitled, at its option, and in its sole and absolute good-faith discretion, to cancel the Settlement and rescind its agreement to the Settlement Agreement if a sufficient number of Settlement Class Members excluding themselves from the Settlement reaches a level that, in Remington's judgment, threatens to frustrate the purposes of the Agreement. To cancel the settlement, Remington must provide written notice to Plaintiffs' Counsel and to the Court no later than 10 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. In the event of cancellation of the Final Approval Hearing or this Settlement Agreement, all cost shall be borne by the Parties that incurred the expenses.

S. Confirmatory Discovery

119. Defendants have provided information requested by Plaintiffs' Counsel related to the former and current X-Mark Pro assembly process, the X-Mark Pro specialty cleaning, testing and inspection process, and potential Settlement valuation issues. Defendants agree that this confirmatory discovery may be communicated by Plaintiffs' Counsel to the Court. Defendants further agree to make best efforts in providing all responsive documents in reasonable time prior to December 5, 2014. Defendants further agree to amend, supplement, and/or otherwise correct this confirmatory discovery to the extent one or more Defendants learns information that renders such discovery incomplete, unreliable, or inaccurate. Defendants remain under such an obligation until the Effective Date. Defendants are under no additional obligations with respect to confirmatory discovery apart from those in this paragraph.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the Parties have executed this Settlement Agreement as of the dates set forth below.
